Girl Power! Celebrates 10 Years
*Hands on Miami Volunteers Joins Us

Miami, FL (October 18, 2010) – We’re so excited! For 10 years Girl Power!, a nonprofit day and after-school social change program, has made a difference in the neighborhood. Our efforts to empower girls, ages 11 – 17, to take pride in themselves, love their families and commit to education has had a positive impact on Miami’s Liberty City community and on Saturday, Oct. 23, 2010, we celebrate.

Our day of celebration begins with a special gift from Hands on Miami. From 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. Hands on Miami volunteers will give us a much-needed makeover. Volunteers and our staff will meet at Girl Power! headquarters, 6015 NW 7th Avenue, to clean, paint, and do landscaping, among other things, to make our office a more beautiful place. Then from 3 p.m. until 6 p.m. we’re throwing a party. This social gathering is for our girls, their families, and volunteers and will take place in the Girl Power! tented parking lot.

Come, celebrate 10 years with us. Witness the transformation that takes place at our office then party... Enjoy food, fun, music and good people. For additional information call Sherri at (305) 756-5502.
