Girl Power! Embraces Womanhood

Our Rites of Passage Summer Camp Ends with a Welcome to Womanhood Ceremony

Miami, FL (July 23, 2010) – It’s our “rite of passage.” On July 27, 2010 at 6:30 p.m. Girl Power! will celebrate the young girls who participated in this year’s Rites of Passage Summer Camp Program by culminating this journey with a Welcome to Womanhood Ceremony. The ceremony will sum up lessons learned this summer as well as showcase the powerful young women who have emerged enlightened and elated.

The six -week Rites of Passage Summer Camp Program was designed for young girls ages 11 – 17 and featured three main topics: developing a positive image; evaluating aspirations and desires; and the importance of setting goals and striving to accomplish them. Our fun-filled and empowering camp shared the how-to’s of experiencing an uplifting and fulfilling life. Our Rites of Passage Summer Camp included dance, drama, art, etiquette and more – all created to assist girls in their journey to become strong, smart and beautiful young women.

We invite you to support the Girl Power! girls. Join us Tuesday, July 27, 2010, at 6:30 p.m. for our Welcome to Womanhood Ceremony. For additional information call Sherry at (305) 756-5502.

About Girl Power!

Girl Power!, established in 2000 by the World Literacy Crusade of Florida, is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit day and after-school social change program that promotes positive behavior, enhances social skills and improves academic performance in at-risk, adolescent girls ages 11 to 17.
